A huge land slide occurred near Stockport, in Columbia county, N. Y., on Monday last. The earth caved to a dis-tance of eighty feet, and the surface moved 600 feet, carrying trees and fences with it, and leaving them upright and in good order on their new site. Some of the weaker trees were snapped or twisted. The movement occupied half an hour, being very gradual, and no noise was nearl until the mass struck the base of a fill with a crash like thunder. A fissure ep beyong sounding has appeared near e sunken portion of land, and fears are tertained that another slide may occur.
